When all differences have been burnt up and everything has merged into the One, this marks a state of achievement that you may call Advaita sthiti (the state of unqualified Oneness). The ever changing world, with its varying movements and states of rest and all diversity then completely vanishes, and only the One remains.

In the morning as you wake up, pray “Lord, accept as Thy service everything that I shall do today”. At night again, before falling asleep, pray “In self-surrender I bow to Thee placing my head at Thy holy feet”. Try to spend the whole day in this spirit.

On the journey through life in this world nobody remains happy. The pilgrimage to the Goal of human existence is the only path to Supreme happiness. Try to tread that path which is your very own, where there is no question of pleasure and pain, the path that leads to freedom from egotism and the highest Bliss.
