

MARCH 1

It is by yearning and pining for Him that the One is found. In times of adversity and distress as well as in times of well-being and good fortune, try to seek refuge in the One alone.

Om Shree Ma

MARCH 2

Prayer never goes in vain. So long as no response is received, prayer must be continued.

Om Shree Mahalaxmyai namah

MARCH 3

Relative happiness, that is to say, happiness depending on the fulfilment of any worldly desire, ends in grief.

Om Shree Mahasaraswatyai namah

MARCH 4

A worldly desire, if unfulfilled, makes you miserable; if fulfilled, it is almost invariably followed by some other desire and the chain of desires disturb your peace of mind.

Om Shree Manglavyai namah

MARCH 5

So long as one believes that true happiness can be had in this world without searching within, one will remain in bondage.

Om Shree Mantrashaktyai namah

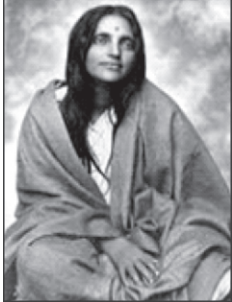

MARCH 6

Strive to abandon yourself, without reserve, to Him. Then you will have no grief, no pain, no disappointment, no frustration.

Om Shree Mahakalai namah

MARCH 7

He is the fountain of peace and the treasure-house of real happiness.

Om Shree Maharaudrayai namah

MARCH 8

Thinking of anything other than God is what creates sorrow.

Om Jai Ma

MARCH 9

Unconditional surrender to Him is the best solace for man. Invoke Him and be constantly intent on realizing Him.

Om Shree Muktanandvinodinyai namah

MARCH 14

Don't indulge in cynical despair. Don't say: "Realization is not for me, not for me"! Resolve with determination that "I must attain Self-Realization. I must". Doubt is sin.

Om Shree Mooladharanivasinyai namah

MARCH 15

Self-Realization is God-Realization and God-Realization is Self-Realization.

Om Shree Yogijanaranjinyai namah

MARCH 16

It is the will of the Almighty that prevails. By living in harmony with His will and becoming an instrument in His hands you should try to realize Him.

Om Shree Yogishwaryai namah

MARCH 17

What does Atma-darsana, the direct perception of the self-imply? The seer, the seen and the act of seeing, where these three are one, there the Brahman is realized.

Om Jai Ma

MARCH 18

It must be made clear that it is the action of the Guru's power which induces the functioning of will-power; in other words, this will-power may be said to derive from the power of Guru.

Om Shree Ma

MARCH 19

Devine Happiness which you call “Parama Sukhadham” is pure, unalloyed, bliss, happiness in its own right.

Om Shree Radhikayai namah

MARCH 20

Time is gliding away swiftly. Gather up your possessions, No one accompanies you on your final journey.

Om Shree Radhakrishnaikaswaroopinyai namah

MARCH 21

To keep your mind engrossed exclusively in the contemplation of the Self (Atma chintan) you must attempt again, again and again. Never allow your thoughts to dwell your helplessness.

Om Shree Lalitadevyai namah

MARCH 22

Do not desire to be poor; to crave for His Real Wealth is man's constant duty. There is very little time left to you. He is all gracious, all compassionate and pulls you towards Himself.

Om Shree Lilashaktyai namah

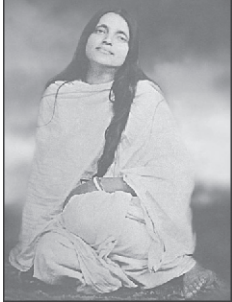

MARCH 23

Things in this world contained in the infinite number and the infinite number is One.

Om Shree Vagishwaryai namah

MARCH 24

Om Shree Vindhyavasinyai namah

April 2

When elders or superiors talk, do not interrupt, if you have to say anything, say in private, or afterwards. You give your opinion, if you are asked.

Om Shree Vishalakshyai namah

April 3

By prolonged resistance in Sat-Sadhana, a place dedicated to Divine 'Sadbuddhi' will be awakened.

Om Jai Ma

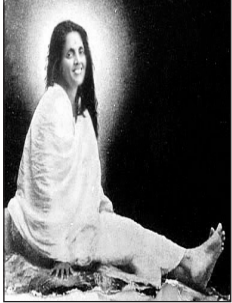

April 4

It is the duty of those who have gone out in search of Truth to accept everything that 'Sadhu' do in search of Truth as the manifestations of their own 'Ista' or 'Guru'.

Om Shree Ma

April 5

In the entire universe, there is no question of boundary or limit—it is boundless, unlimited. All is on the One, is the One. Blindness and bondage are due to the veil of ignorance.

Om Shree Vedaprakashikayai namah

April 6

*Do not pay attention to shortcomings of others,
but try to discover their positive qualities, remembering that it is your way of looking at things that causes you pain.*

Om Shree Vaishnavi Devyai namah

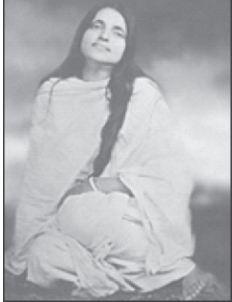

April 7

In God's creation, the results of one's action have to be enjoyed and suffered to. Everything is His dispensation, and remember that He is cleansing you to make you fit to be united with Him.

Om Shree Vaibhavasampannayai namah

April 8

If one's firm and undivided attention is given to the Supreme Path, God Himself takes care of everything.

Om Shree Vairagyamoortyai namah

Om Jai Ma

April 12

*The more you let your thoughts dwell on Him,
the more you will find Yourself improving in health, body and mind.*

Om Shree Ma

April 13

Try and try again to reach the goal you have set before yourself. So long as Realization does not come, you must never relax your efforts. Let this be your firm resolve.

Om Shree Shavitambarayai namah

April 14

Light is gained by His grace alone. He is the One to be held in remembrance at all times.

Om Shree Shamshanavasinyai namah

April 15

Cry out to him alone. The Supreme Power, “Mahamaya”, cannot remain indifferent to the inconsolable weeping of Her offspring.

Om Shree Shivshaktyai namah

April 16

It is the desire that causes sorrow; but the will to realize God is itself felicity. Sorrow comes in order to lead you to happiness. Be certain that He will comfort you and take you into His arms.

Om Shree Hridayavasinyai namah

April 17
